INFORMATION FOR THE TEAMS

MKN will equip all competition kitchens with premium professional cooking technology

We are very happy and proud to be exclusive partner of this outstanding international cooking competition. We are delighted to inform you that all of the competition kitchens will be equipped with state-of-the-art professional cooking equipment made by MKN.

Just take a look and discover more about MKN
and its products:

Training under the best conditions is the optimal way to prepare for the competition. We are therefore making it possible for you to train on MKN equipment in your area.

MKN's international chefs' team will be providing valuable support with tips and tricks around the equipment, also covering such aspects as time management and work organization.

If you are interested in support or training possibilities in your area, please contact us at olympics@mkn.de!

We wish you all the best for your training sessions and really look forward to seeing you all in Stuttgart!

Kind regards
Your MKN Team
