The Road to the Medals

As soon as the Olympic flame has been lit, the participants of the IKA/Culinary Olympics are only focussed on one thing: racking up as many points as possible. The jury will judge the teams and individual exhibitors in each competition.

On the four competition days, from 3 – 6 February 2024, gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded in every competition based on the number of points. At the final award ceremony on Wednesday, 7 February 2024, the total score decides who stands on the podium and becomes an Olympic champion.
